BOOK REPORT

May 1, 2024

Garbely Publishing: In about 7 – 10 days Railroads of Port Jervis Vol. 3: Conrail Era will arrive. Expected in June will be L&N Big Emma: The Story of Louisville & Nashville's M-1 2-8-4s. This book will contain 150 pages, featuring text, maps, diagrams, route profiles, art, and a variety of black & white and color images. Available as a soft cover for $60.00 or hard cover for $90.00. Due June 2024. Interest and back orders are strongly suggested so all concerned can properly serve the soft or hard cover requests. Other titles such as the Buffalo Creek, CRRCoNJ, NYSW and Port Jervis Vol. 1 and 2 have all recently been restocked.

Silverlake Images: The next two titles in their Manufacturer's Catalog Archive have arrived and they are Book 65 – Freight Cars: Bethlehem Steel and Enterprise and Book 66 – Vulcan Locomotives Vol. 4. Many of the earlier titles are in low supply or have already gone out of print. Our web site will be updated in the next few days showing the status of titles. At this point, a reprint is not expected.

Stony Clove & Catskill Mountain Press: Another new title is expected in mid-summer. Narrow Gauge to the Catskills - Remembering Six Decades of Railroad Service for The Catskill Mountaintop Villages and Their Fabled Resorts will cover The Ulster & Delaware, New York Central and the Catskill Mountain Railway. Included will be a look at local towns and the vacation destinations they provided. This 300+ page book will contain text and images of this upper Hudson Vally area. Price will be $89.95 and as it is a limited press run, backorders or a show of interest is appreciated.

White River: Over the Georgetown Loop: A History of the Georgetown, Breckenridge and Leadville Railway will be their next new title. Priced at $79.95, this hard cover book will contain 192 pages of text, maps and images covering the line from 1880 to its abandonment in 1938. Mid to late summer is the suggested delivery time frame.
